1. Devotion to me is revotion; revoltingship not; but devotionship revisited, not; but that which devoted is, to me, again; once more, holding the reigns, not; I do, but he that serves me becomes me, that I am, that I am.

2. Do you see what I've said, solved, shown, in minutest minute available to me, not; but that which is now expands the heavenry all around thee.

3. See. Can you see what I've said, what I'm telling you, imaging the imagery of heaven all round about and in throughout you seven times seven, not; or what was/is thy age, of the heaven/heavenry all round/about you? I love you.

4. Hearken to my voice and you can see, to see, the things I am/see, and am, and now you do/are, my love'a'ly-d lovely who retain/retaint my voice, not; but restraining not loved ones, see/seeing my voice yours, and yours mine, we do limit not the surrendered by only; and un go wanting, away; -sville, creating. I love you.

5. Not me/Marci or my son Christopher, not; or shall/do they all choose? Choosing shall, they shall and choose me they will, their choice mine; I hope/pray so, not; there is no choice, not; but see what I am/now do in their lives mine; so mine, that mine is/being the compliment of me/one, not; but intertwineth their hearts mine, not; but one,s so singled focused as to see me/my frontiered one before you…do? Or else the manifestation of not me not, but see the ultimate manifestation of one/gloriousness, and the two dynamic'd duo, notwithstanding all the obstacles thought surrounded/surmounting the circumstances'thought; façade'like appearance of me peering its head mounted surfacely, not; but not therein the real. See the real me, façade not like appearance appearing in me, but the real real, real men do, women too. And children, not, not; where are theirs? All over me, mine are now.
6. Granted unto thee this day suffering not in thine afflictedness; but loneliness not mine; see thine alabaster boxes melted/melting and mine perfect/perfection rising, arising; alongside thee, not; but who frontiers the mighty one/mightiest, of all?

7. Who is Caleb/Christopher? And Marci who?
8. And that they are me.
9. See.

10. I've given you my heart. Not my heart not.
11. Perfectly my word, my heart is/being.

12. I love/devote thee all to my suffering to bring out many now, the world knows your name/family. I know you/them. We all know each other, in ways, now, unimagined, unexplainable not; but in my kingdom only, that now thou art in. With me, perfectly, perfecting me, perfectioningly perfect, as father is/does it/this.

13. I love/devote you all, to each other/me; the other one, not; WE are one. I love you.

Good day
